“ *Dear Gloria, Joe, Sue and family,
I am sure my mother meet him at the pearly gates! I have such fond memories growing up with such wonderful neighbors. Mr Burkhard(Regie) was the coolest Dad on the block!
He always made me and my sisters welcome! The only thing I was ever mad about was that he would not let me swim initially without a life vest. I was so embarrassed because I was the only one that had to(seemed I was). Loved that pool and all the fun we had!
God speed Regie! You sure have left your mark on alot of us!
I am thinking and praying of you all during this difficult time.
Love Mary Van Slyke Thompson*

“ I cannot share a memory of Regis because he disowned his daughter Christine Burkhard, my mother, his 1st born child when she married my father who was an African American man. Since she was not mentioned in the obituary I thought it was appropriate to let everyone know he did have another child who despite the circumstances of their relationship, she always wished they could reconcile. Rest In Peace Regis.
