“ I am heartbroken to hear the news of Rita’s passing. You are in my thoughts in this very difficult time.

Rita was my 3rd boss within GE. The thing that stood the most about her was her willingness to help. Every time I would go to her, she would always take the time to explain things even she was extremely busy. As I was just starting out my GE career, her actions & support meant that much more to me because they helped me gain the understanding and confidence to perform my job well.

While my heart is heavy, it’s burden is bit lightened by remembering her unique sense of humor and her love of certain foods.

I would like to share the following quote in her honor.

*...that best portion of a good man's life,
His little, nameless, unremembered, acts
Of kindness... (William Wordsworth)*

With my deepest and heartfelt condolences.

So very sad to learn that Rita has died. She was a terrific colleague and friend. She was also a loyal user of our fitness center at the main plant - usually leaving as I rolled in at 7:00 AM. Rest In Peace.

“ Rita was a tremendous work colleague ... she was smart, able to handle numerous complex tasks simultaneously, eager to help and always had a positive thought to share. Simply put: Rita was a "shining star" on the GE corporate benefit team. Whenever we had an employee issue or concern that crossed Rita's desk ... she went to great lengths to get it resolved. My thoughts and prayers are with Rita's family during this challenging time. May God embrace each of you with his love.

My friend Rita had a personality like none other. Quick witted and honest. A gentle and caring soul for all she knew and for all those whom she helped throughout her career who have no idea how fortunate they were to have had her touch their lives. I met Rita at Russell Sage. She was a wonderful mix of being one of the friendliest people I met at school and a fierce competitor for the best grade in economics to a game of Bocce Ball. We connected again later at GE and struck up our friendship again. Rita was a straight shooter and called it like she saw it. Rita never let the unimportant stuff get in the way. I will miss our conversations about current events and Rita's ability to convey her strong opinions while trying not to discount your view - even if it was opposite of hers. You always knew where Rita stood on a topic. She was a breath of fresh air.

I worked with Rita throughout the 1980's at GE in building 40. Rita was a go to employee...sharp as a tack with a great sense of humor. One of Frank Murphy's favorites! She always talked about her family so I can imagine your loss. My deepest sympathies to family members...Rita was one wonderful person and friend.
