

Robert "Bob" John Fuller

April 25, 1949 - January 21, 2021

Loudonville-Robert John Fuller died peacefully at his home with his faithful family by his side after complications from a six-year battle with stage four pancreatic cancer.

He was born on April 25 anno Domini 1949 in Rensselaer, NY to Dorothy Tucker Fuller and John Fuller. Bob was a thirty-four-year resident of Loudonville moving to Halfmoon in 2017. He was also a resident of Yarmouthport, Massachusetts.

Bob is survived by his devoted wife of forty-six years, Susan Carol Peters Fuller. His children, David Robert (Jessica) of Kingston, MA. and Lauren Michelle Frey (Frederick) of Dayton, MD. were his greatest accomplishment. He is survived by four grandchildren Annabelle Grace and Jackson David Fuller and Frederick Liam and Kinley Marie Frey. They were his pride and joy and the apple of his eye. Bob also leaves behind a sister, Lorraine Tidd (Richard), and brothers Bruce (Missy) and Gary (Ann) Fuller. He is also survived by his mother-in-law (Marion Peters) and brothers-in-law William (Pat) and Robert (Diane) Peters. Bob is also survived by his nieces and nephews. Life-long friends who were always there for him include Brian and Janet Stevens, Ronnie and Pam Rich, and Thomas and Karen Karl.

Bob graduated from Columbia High School; received his undergraduate degree from Siena College and his MBA from the College of St. Rose. For many years, he managed Albany Public and Shop-Rite supermarkets. He left the supermarket business to pursue a career as a regional manager with Valvoline Instant Oil Change which he ran for twenty-five years. In his retirement, he enjoyed driving a school bus for the North Colonie School District. Bob was active in the LaSalle Parent Club and volunteered at Westland Hills Little League. For four years, Bob and Sue enjoyed watching their daughter play field hockey at Hobart and William Smith Colleges. He made sure they never missed a game and was their biggest cheerleader. Bob was also an avid New York Yankee and New York Giants fan. Since 1984, Bob was an usher on Sunday mornings at St. Pius X Church.

Bob and Sue spent many summers with their children and family vacationing on their beloved Cape Cod. In 2013, they accomplished their dream and bought a home in Yarmouthport, MA. They especially enjoyed spending time at Grays Beach and Dennis Pond. Bob believed in hard work, self-reliance, dedication, a strong family life, love of God, and love of country which he instilled in his children. Throughout his valiant six-year battle, he never gave up and always kept a positive outlook on life. We will be eternally grateful to Johns Hopkins Hospital and Dr. Charles Weismann of NYOH. Without their collaboration, Bob would not have had the last six years of his life. Also, many thanks to Dr. Adriana Lisinschi, MD, PHD, and Alicia Ray, RN and the staff at NYOH for the wonderful, personal care they gave Bob. Finally, to our neighbors in Linden Woods who always took the time to visit with Bob. They always knew on a good day; he'd be out catching the sunshine.

“ Susan and Family,
I worked along side Bob on many fund raisers and events while our sons were at LaSalle. The last time I spoke to him was at Wendy's across from the school while he was on a break driving the bus. He was always so proud of his kids.

“ Our deepest sympathy goes out to Bobs family this morning. I knew Bob for a few years working with him at Shaker driving a school bus. We both had long careers prior to driving and would spend time telling war stories to each other. We also shared a love of The Cape! In every respect Bob was a good man who will always be remembered as such. Both my wife Barbara and I will remember Bob in our thoughts and prayers. Our deepest sympathy to all his family. Respectfully, Barbara and Brian Burke

“ A good man. I did not know him well, but my husband, RANDY TEIPER, was a lifelong friend too; from the same neighborhood, they shared those memories when they would meet routinely for lunch these past few years. Many times over the course his journey they would talk on the phone, remembering the past and being glad they still had the friendship for so long. Loved by many and will be missed by all.

“ Bobby Fuller was my neighbor growing up. My sister and I were friends with the boys and Lorraine. We were both members of St. Pius X church, and I enjoyed seeing Susan and Bob weekly. He was always kind and caring. He will be greatly missed.
