“ Words cannot express how sad my family feels over Ron's passing. Ron was a star: a handsome young man with a great personality, solid intelligence, fabulous sense of humor, and a general charisma that made you take notice whenever he came in the room. During his high school years Ron was often at my home and it was always a delight to talk with him. My son, Ron, Dave Morrow and James Reitter seemed inseparable in those years. As time passed I would see Ron less (although I run into Ron Sr. at the cigar shop) but I always made it a point to follow his career. And what a career he carved for himself! His law firm is top notch, he was an outstanding member of his community in additon to being a loving husband and a devoted dad. Ron you will forever be remembered and loved!###imported-begin##James Martorano##imported-end##

“ I am deeply saddened by the loss of Ron. Throughout my time at RPI, I could always count on Ron's leadership and friendship. The news of Ron's passing came to me from not one or two, but from numerous RPI/ PiKA colleagues from across the country, all with the same feeling of disbelief and loss. He left a lasting impression on all that knew him; a testament to the class and character that Ron embodied. My condolences to Ron's family and friends. He will be missed. ppKA##imported-begin##Jeremy Ducharme##imported-end##

“ When I learned the news about Ron's passing, it was with stunned disbelief. We grew up together: went to the same dentist, were in classes together, did theater together and spent a lot of time together with all of our good Lakeland friends. He was my debonair junior prom date - he rocked that eighties bow tie like a superstar. While as adults our paths did not often cross, memories of him are pervasive in my recollections of growing up, and I am deeply sad that he is no longer with us. He will be missed.##imported-begin##Kim Armstrong Force##imported-end##

“ Your jokes, your laughter, your willingness to do anything for a friend will forever have a place in my heart. Like staying up through the late hours of the night during Hurricane Irene, just to make sure your friend is ok because she didn't know if her home, husband, and animals would be alright. You were a good man, good friend, good father. May you rest forever in eternal peace. ~JK##imported-begin##Jennifer Kelly##imported-end##
