“ So sorry for the loss of our cousin Ronnie. We all knew one another and shared laughs when we were younger. I always wonder where does the time go, and why do we let it slip away without a simple visit. God bless him, hopefully he is in a better place.

“ Roger, my condolences on Ronnie's departure. I just heard the news today. I had not seen Ronnie in years but always remember him with great fondness. I believe he's now living his life to the full in God's domain and what could be better than that? God bless you and all your family.###imported-begin###Ed McMullen###imported-end##
