“ So sorry to hear of Mrs. G's passing. She welcomed me with opened arms when I moved across the street 26 years ago. I remeber, fondly, walking across to sit on her porch and talk about anything that came to mind. When she asked me to help with her church group I was honored to do so. Her unlimited energy and spirit was awe inspiring. I tell people so often about how she once told me how to stay young. "Liz..you have to move it or you're gonna lose it." I think abiuat that, and her, almost evry day. I know she is already resting in peace with the angels. She earned those wings many times over. God Bless all of her and Joe's family. The nicest group of people you will ever find.

*I'm sorry Frank and I can not be there in person to pay our respects.
Know that our thoughts and prayers are with all of you. God Bless.*
