I don't have the words to describe how I feel right now, seeing that my all-time favorite little lady who I have known forever has passed, but I believe she is better now. Rosie in body has passed but Rosie will always be next to Hap and her family's side, guiding them and protecting them until it is time to once meet again. Rosie always made me laugh, she always had a smart remark for me and I in return had one waiting for her. Such a beautiful girl she was, and still is. She will be missed but as I said, she will always be watching the family and leaving or doing little things to let the family know she is there. I Love You, Rosie, and will see you someday when we all get back together again.

I just felt such a pang in my heart finding this obituary today. Rosie was such a dear person; she used to babysit for my sister and I back in the early 60s. I remember when she was dating Happy, who lived next door to us on Broad Street. She was always saying things to make us laugh! She and Happy created a beautiful family, from what the pictures show...I hadn't seen her for so many years. God Bless her family - I'm so sorry for your loss. Rosie was a beautiful lady with a one-of-a kind personality, somebody I (everybody) loved being around.
