

Rose E. Tetrault

April 3, 1917 - January 14, 2015

Albany-He called her by name, and He took her hand and led her into His promise of everlasting, love, peace and freedom.

Rose E. Tetrault, born on April 3, 1917 to the late John and Lenora Wilimczyk Peckowitz. She was predeceased by her husband Alfred G. Tetrault in 1998. She survived her siblings and spouses, Gabriel, Alex (Hazel), Sophie (Ferdinand) Schnurr, Helen (James) Gleason, Jacob (Bea) and Mary Grieves. Rose is survived by her children Elinor (Dr. James) McMahan and Alfred J. Tetrault of Ocala, FL; also four grandchildren, Stefanie Martin (late J.Douglas), Dr. James (Megan) McMahan, Michael F. (Lysa) McMahan and Shannon Tetrault; great grandmother of Nathaniel, Amelia, and Noah Martin, Ryan, Matthew and Colin McMahan; also several nieces and nephews survive.

Rose was a voracious reader who often critiqued books saying “save your eyes, select another one.” And there was never a grandchild who needed a sweater; her patterns were unique and treasured. After 20 years she retired from the NYS Department of Motor Vehicles. Rose’s family would like to offer a heartfelt thank you to the angels of Guadalupe Unit at Our Lady of Mercy Life Center.

“ Dear Ellie and Jim,

Very sorry to read of your mom's passing. I wish I'd known when I saw you both at the Mahoney wake on Thursday so I could have expressed my condolences personally. I was not able to attend the wake or funeral as I was out of town both days --- please accept my regrets.

*You must feel very fortunate to have had her for such a long time!
Sincerely,
Bob Rapp*
