“ To the family of Rosemary,

As her next door neighbor of 48 years, she presented her self as a quiet, busy lady, dedicated to take care of her dad, then her brother Frank never having a chance to spend her own time with her own dreams and goals.

Once, Rosemary shared the story of her experience in taking care of President Truman. Over the years she was very involved with school, working at the VA and doing Private Duty.

When our three children were little, after putting in her pool, Rosemary invited them to swim and enjoy their summer. When they were young, she would send over unexpected small gifts as a surprise.

Over the years, as our children were growing, this neighbor always inquired about our disabled son and how he was doing; our second son who had aspirations to be in the air force, she loved military and our daughter as a pharmacist.

Over the last few years, Rosemary took an interest in our Grand'Twins' and came out of her home to greet them when they were in our yard, The most recent thoughtfulness of Rosemary was in giving our Kyra a 'two wheeler'. Although not brand new, it was quite nice, pink and had a great basket.

We didn't see much of her over the last two years. As she was bedridden, did not have the ability to be out and free to do what she wished.

We will always remember Rosemary, as we have many interesting stories about our neighbor.

We wish peace and a great rest for Rosemary and send our sympathy to your family.
