“ I would call her every Mothers Day because I always looked to her as my second mother. Her dear son Kurt was a best friend in high school and that is how I got to know her and her dear husband, Eugene. They were second parents to all of Kurt's friends.

She was a devout Catholic and a woman I so admired for her strict religious standing, but never over powering or putting her devout Catholic values onto others. She did this through her example and her kindness.

Truly one of my most respected women I ever knew and I thank her for her beautiful Motherly treatment of me and close friends of Kurt. May God Bless her in heaven and in knowing that she is back with her husband and with her dear son, Kurt.

Embraces, kisses and loves to you.

You are most surely missed.
