I was shocked and sadden to hear about Ruthie. Like my brother Michael said, we did have some fun and wild times both in Catskill and Albany. One of my foundest memories is the party you guys had for me just before I left for Viet Nam. That was one for the books. I seem to remember Ruthie and I dancing on top of some tables late into the night.

*She was a great cousin. My love to all.

“ So sad to hear about cousin Ruthie. During our teenage years she and our other cousins would come down to Catskill for the weekends and needless to say we all raised hell together. You were a pistol! Uncle Joe and Aunt Rose love you so much. We had sooo much fun back then. Living out west it was hard to stay in touch but I'm thankful for facebook to help us reconnect. Sending my condolences to all my cousins on the Fleig side of the family. I wish I could be there in person. My heart aches with you all. Love you Ruthie.
