

Ryan A. Class

February 12, 1975 - October 12, 2023

Rotterdam- Ryan Class, 48, a native of Dracut, Massachusetts, peacefully departed this world in Albany, New York, surrounded by loved ones on Thursday, October 12, 2023. His indomitable spirit shone through during his ten-month battle with cancer, and it was a battle.

Ryan is survived by his father Raul Class (Jeanne), his mother Amy Class, his brother Ed Class (Mary Alice), his children Alex Class (Serenity Todd) and Angel Class, his niece Jennifer Mentiplay (Jay) and their children, nephews, as well as numerous cousins, his dear friend Jennifer Kilfoyle, extended family members, and a multitude of friends.

Ryan enjoyed sports - fishing, baseball, golf, and racquetball where at 16 years old his classification was open-men's and had a sponsorship by Ektelon. Ryan also took pleasure in cooking, traveling and music. He was quick to offer a smile, a helping hand and children gravitated to him. He loved dogs and they in turn were attracted to him.

At a young age he began working with his father in construction - his work spans areas of Massachusetts and New York (member of Carpenters' Union).

Friends and family are invited to celebrate his life on Friday, October 20, 2023, at McVeigh Funeral Home, 208 N. Allen St., Albany, NY 12206, from 5:00 pm to 8:00 pm. A funeral Service will be held that same evening in the funeral home at 6:00pm. Please enter the funeral home from the rear parking lot entrance.

“ My favorite memory of Ryan is when he and Amy came from Springfield, Missouri to visit. He walked in to my apartment as if he had seen me yesterday, totally at home. Amy had done a good job in making sure that he knew his family. He knew everyone in the family, which cousin belonged to which Titi. My fish tank was on the floor because I was cleaning it. Ryan sat in front of the tank and started to scoop up the fish – Amy and I both said, “What are you doing?”. Ryan very seriously said, “I’m fishing.” Titi Nanny
