“ Tom, Peggy, and entire family-
Saying that I am so sorry for your loss seems so inadequate, Sally was a good friend and I will miss her terribly. These past months have been full of loss for our family and I would like to share her words with you, “ The terrible pain will eventually be replaced with happier memories but it is a slow process.” Please know that we are less than a mile away and our door will always be open.
I have many happy memories working with Sally during her first term as mayor and Dan has many happy memories while they both volunteered at the breakfast for the fire department.

“ Sally was ever poised. Many years ago my unleashed dog walked across her newly polyurethaned porch. We have been friends ever since. Sally was so smart, a gentle listener and she asked questions that illuminated and validated. As mayor she was respectful and meticulous. She was a loyal and greatly trusted friend. Tom, her difficult days are behind her. She's drinking wild turkey and patiently waiting for her best friend.
