

Salvatore Boncordo

November 3, 1942 - January 15, 2022

Albany-Salvatore Boncordo (born 1942, Messina, Sicily) entered into Eternal Life on January 15, 2022, surrounded by his devoted family. He is survived by his loving wife of 55 years, Vittoria (Crisafulli) Boncordo. He is also survived by his son, Dr. Antonio Boncordo (Dr. Linda Emmer), his daughters Melissa (Michael) and Emily Boncordo. He was also the proud and loving grandfather of Alexander, Christopher, Ava and Antonio. Additionally, he is survived by his sister, Cettina Boncordo and his sisters-in-law, Santina Crisafulli, Mathilde Cavallo and Rosa Rondazzo. He is also survived by many nephews, nieces and cousins.

He is predeceased by his parents, Antonio and Letteria Boncordo, his brothers, Letterio and Giovanni Boncordo and brother-in-law Orazio La Spina.

In Italy, Salvatore was a police officer in Rome. When he emigrated to the United States, he learned new trades and became a master plumber. He also worked at Tobin Packing for a few years and then retired after working 30 years as a steel inspector at Al Tech Specialty Steel.

During his life, Sal was the quintessential Italian gardener and loved planting his tomatoes, beans, pear trees and fig trees. Sal was very athletic and enjoyed everything outdoors. He enjoyed swimming, fishing, bicycling, rollerblading, scuba diving and of course bocce ball. However, his true joy in life was spending time with his family and friends.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend a Memorial Funeral Mass Friday, January 21, 2022 at 11:00 am at St. Pius X Church, Loudonville, NY. Please only enter the church from the front doorway; church ambassadors will be available to help with seating and questions.
