

Sarah Ann McGlone

December 15, 1922 - June 6, 2017

Albany-Sarah Ann (Clavey) McGlone entered into eternal rest at St. Peter's Nursing and Rehabilitation Center on Tuesday June 6, 2017.

Sarah, known as Sally to her friends, was born 12/15/22 in Wilmington, Delaware to Vaughan and Bessie (Edwards) Clavey. She graduated from Pierre S. DuPont high school and worked as a secretary for several years until 1947 when she married William P. McGlone. Bill and Sally moved to Albany in 1954 and raised their seven children there. Sally converted to Catholicism after her children were born and was devoted to her faith. She enjoyed many activities with her friends including bowling, movies and Broadway shows. She worked at the Food Pantry and in many other projects with the St. Vincent de Paul Parish Council. Sally loved to travel and was able to spend winters in St. Augustine, Fla. and also enjoyed European trips.

After Bill's death she lived independently for many years until ill health sent her to St. Peter's where she was cared for with much love and kindness for nearly 5 years.

Sally is survived by children Kathleen Cole, Elizabeth Kranz, Richard (Judy), Gerald (Carol), William, John (Kelly) and Patricia. She is also survived by 12 grandchildren: Christi (Mike), Heather (Bill), Lauren, Bridget, Emery (Steve), Mark, Tyler (Kristen), Josh, Leighann, Austin, Joseph and Kathleen (Wyatt) and 10 great grandchildren.
