I just found out it is March 22nd 2021. I Heard it Through the Grapevine, but I believe there are no accidents. I dated Scott a million years ago back when he was a teenager for a very brief period of time. I had the biggest crush in the world on him growing up and thought he was the most handsome, coolest boy I had ever seen. and so I chased him around pleading with him to be my boyfriend and one day he finally gave in and he was my boyfriend for all about two or three months. but I have always loved him no disrespect to his beautiful wife it was just a childhood Crush. but he was a super nice guy. he's too young to be gone. I'm very sad to know this, and I pray for his family and friends. My name is Donna Burg and I met him when his sister lived on West Street un Albany back in the 80s.
