

Sean B Sheridan

January 2, 1941 - December 19, 2013

ALBANY- Sean B. Sheridan passed away on December 19, 2013. A native of Albany, he was the son of the late Michael and Alice McCarra Sheridan. He is the brother of Michael J. Sheridan (Rosemary), Sheila A. Sheridan and Maureen S. Chiaramonte (Joseph); adored uncle of Maria H. Bruce (Daniel), Peru McCarra Sheridan (Alicia), Jessica A. Chiaramonte and John B. Chiaramonte.

Sean was a graduate of the former Vincentian Institute. He was a NYS Regent Scholarship winner and chose to attend Fordham University. He went on to complete his Bachelors degree at St. Mary's Seminary in Baltimore. Sean returned to Fordham University and did post graduate work. He received Masters degrees in European History and English Literature. Upon returning to Albany, he taught at the English dept. at Siena College.

He was supportive of many social service projects in the city of Albany. He was instrumental in the opening of Arbor House by the Sisters of Mercy. Sean had a keen interest in the local political scene. He enjoyed being an aide and a friend to the former assemblyman, the late Richard J. Connors.

For many years he worked as chief resolution writer with the Bill Drafting Commission for the NYS legislature. After retiring, he enjoyed reading, writing poetry, spending time with his family and rooting for his favorite football team, the NY Giants.

Sean was a soft spoken, sensitive soul who did no harm and left the world a better place. The poet, Thomas Cambell, once wrote, "to live in hearts we leave behind is not to die." Sean will live in the hearts of all those he touched in his life.

The family would like to sincerely thank the nurses and staff of the Teresian House who cared for Sean.

All are invited to attend a memorial Mass to celebrate Sean's life at Blessed Sacrament Church on Friday at 10:30am. All other services will be private at the convenience of the family.

Dear Mike, Sheila and Maureen: We are embarrassed for not contacting you before this. Personal problems have kept us at bay. Marietta and I express our profound sympathy at the loss of your brother. An astute scholar, man of humor and one who loved everyone, Sean will be dearly missed by family and friends alike. Please accept our kind thoughts and prayers in this time of family loss. We are with you. With much love, Carl and Marietta Blazejewski.
