“ *Dear Christine, I am filled with sorrow at the departure of your Mother. I adored her as well as any one else who met her. She was a friend to me always and always had an ear to listen and a way to make me laugh through anything. Her laughter was contagious. I could fill this page with wonderful things about her.. but you already know them all. Please know that you are in my prayers and Susan will always be in my heart.. I will miss her dearly.... something she and I said everytime we spoke.. and once more to Susan.. I love you yesterday, I love you today and I love you tomorrow!!! See you again someday my friend.. “ I meant Susan a little over a year ago at Wynwood, when my Dad, Mario Mascitelli became a resident. She was a beautiful women with such a caring heart and gentle smile. Since I live in Florida, Susan would call me and give me updates on my Dad and we just talked on the phone forever about anything. I know she loved her family so much, especially her grandson. I just visited New York a couple of weeks ago, and spent some time with Susan, she was so delighted with some little gifts I brought her, I only wish I could tell her the gift of her friendship will be in my heart for a lifetime. I know my Dad will miss her kindness,her smiles, and laughter. I will remember her for her inner gifts and caring heart.
With my deepest sympathy for your loss
