

Suzanne M. Buff

October 20, 1943 - November 5, 2023

Loudonville, NY-Suzanne M. Buff, 80, of Loudonville, passed away peacefully on November 5, 2023, after a brief illness.

Born in Albany, she was the daughter of the late John J. “Jack” Brousseau and Mary O’Hare Brousseau. She graduated from St. Teresa of Avila School and the Academy of the Holy Names.

She was first employed by the Albany Savings Bank. After marriage and raising her family, she returned to work. She was employed by the State of New York, with over 35 years of service at the Department of Taxation and Finance.

Sue was the heart of her family—always putting everyone first. Her love was boundless. She was known for her amazing cooking and baking skills—her special ingredient was love. Whenever her family visited, particularly her grandchildren on college breaks, Sue made sure they left with containers filled with her famous banana bread, blueberry muffins, and melt-in-your-mouth chocolate chip cookies.

She is survived by her beloved husband of 58 years, Marty, her son Brian (Jennifer) Buff of Loudonville, daughter Christina (Peter) Rajotte, and six beautiful grandchildren—her pride and joy: Shawn, Matthew and Nicholas Rajotte, and India, Duncan and Macy Buff. She is also survived by her sister, Michelle Gibson of Glenville. She was pre-deceased by her brother John “Jackie” Brousseau of Albany, sister Jeanne Welch of Camillus, and brother Alexander “Sandy” Brousseau of Colorado.

The family wants to acknowledge the outstanding care, compassion, and service provided by the Town of Colonie EMS, and the doctors, nurses, and staff of the Oncology Unit and MICU at Albany Medical Center.

“ I worked many years with Suzanne at Taxation and Finance, but I first met Sue when our daughters went to Holy Names together. The Mass today was a beautiful tribute. Brian and Christina’s memories brought tears to my eyes. You gave Suzanne a beautiful send off. She is in my prayers.
