“ I always remember visiting all of my "Albany" Cousins, on my Mother's side of the family (Franchini/Scisci), and, they made us feel so welcome each time. I drove my Mother there many weekends and enjoyed every minute of our visits, all of the families/cousins, food, and traditions. We always stayed with my Aunt Annunziata and Cousin Teresa and her family, and, Cousin Antoinette (upstairs) and her family. Those were treasured times in my life and the memories will stay with me forever. Rest In Peace, Cousin Teresa, and, my sincerest condolences to all of the grandchildren and their children of all eight of my "Albany Cousins". My thoughts, prayers and love are with everyone of you. Sincerely, Cousin Linda Roma-Daskal, husband Alex and family <3
