“ I had the pleasure meeting young Tom when the Hilton Hotel had its grand opening. He never failed to make me smile. He was kind polite professional and reliable. I wasn't surprised to see he had remained in their employment all these years. Needless to say when an employee is as dependable as Tom keeping him was not only wise it made so much sense. I send my condolences to his whole family and many friends. To know Tom was to love him. I am very sorry for your loss.
