

Thomas D. DiBell

March 18, 1955 - November 9, 2018

Albany- Thomas Daniel DiBell, 63, Albany NY, passed away peacefully, surrounded by his loving family on November 9, 2018 at St Peters Hospital, where he still managed to keep everyone laughing.

Tom was born March 18, 1955 to Daniel and Dorothy (Fleming) DiBell in Troy, NY, the second of four children. He graduated from Lansingburgh High School in 1973.

Tom is survived by his beloved wife, Karen Flood-DiBell; daughter Alissa (Kim) DiBell; sons Andrew DiBell, Thomas DiBell, Jamie Flood, and Justin Flood; grandchildren Sophia, Justin Jr, and Aidan Flood; sister Ann Chiera; brother Christopher (Janice) DiBell; numerous loving nieces, nephews, relatives, and dear friends. He was preceded in death by his parents and brother Timothy J DiBell.

Right out of high school, Tom began his career as an autobody specialist, growing to be exceptionally skilled and in demand for his meticulous work. Even when he retired, his incredible work ethic and inability to sit still brought him back to Jefferson Motors routinely to help out, where he worked for many years. Tom enjoyed life, spending time with his family and friends, bowling, and cheering on the NY Giants. Tom was adored by everyone he knew, always with a smile on his face and a joke on his lips. Tom will be forever loved and missed.

Friends are invited to visit with the family and celebrate his life Wednesday, November 14, 2018 4:00 pm to 7:00 pm at McVeigh Funeral Home, 208 North Allen Street, Albany, NY 12206.

Tom and his family extend heartfelt gratitude to the compassionate staff at St. Peters Hospital, the staff at Albany Memorial he entertained during infusions, and the caring nurses and doctors at NYOH . As an expression of sympathy, memorial contributions may be sent to the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society or Red Cross.

“ Anne and Chris:

I have many fond memories of times spent with all of you. Your door was always open and I always felt included. We had lots of fun during our drum corps days and watching Tommy play basketball at LHS. I remember you all in a special way during this difficult time. Tom and TJ are gone way too soon.

*Fondly,
