Albany - Thomas C. Fowler, known by many by his nickname "Tod," passed to new life on March 29th, 2023. Tod was born in Rensselaer on September 12, 1941, to Clyde and Margaret Fowler.

He was a graduate with a bachelor's degree in mathematics from The University of Albany where he received his Ph.D. in Philosophy. Tod began his career as an educator at St. John's School in Rensselaer as a mathematics teacher, and later taught in higher education as an adjunct professor at UAlbany and the College of Saint Rose.

At the time of his death, he was the Director of Faith Formation for the Cathedral of the Immaculate Conception in Albany. Tod considered the Cathedral parishioners and staff as his family. Tod was devoted to the Cathedral and to his Catholic religion and the children in the faith formation program. The Catechists who worked with Tod, as well as the entire Cathedral staff, know of his sincerity and generosity of heart. He will always be remembered for his quick wit, gentle spirit and unwavering faith. As he always said...keep smiling.

A sincere thank you to the Doctors and nurses from St. Peter's hospital and especially Fr. John Tallman.
