

Thomas A. McTague

April 18, 1921 - December 5, 2021

Watervliet-Thomas A. McTague, residing at Shaker Pointe at Carondolet in Latham passed on Sunday, December 5, 2021 with his beloved wife Joyce Ann by his side. He was born in Haines Falls in Greene County, the last of eight children born to his parents, Charles and Laura Cole McTague.

His family moved to Albany when he was in the eighth grade after which he transferred to and graduated from the former Vincentian Institute. He then attended Siena College and late joined the US Navy during WW II, while his three older brothers were serving in the US Army. He served on the USS WARREN APA #53 ATTACH SHIP in the South Pacific. He then returned home to his wife, the late Virginia Keane McTague, with whom he had two children, the late Thomas R. McTague, whose wife Marleen resides in Cohoes, NY and Lorraine Jennings (John) of Narraganset, RI. Together they had six grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Tom was a sophomore at VI when he entered and amateur contest at the former Grand Theatre in Albany, playing his alto Saxophone and singing the song "IDA." He won the top prize in the competition. Tom was past treasurer of Normanside Country club and the Albany Chapter of the March of Dimes, and was a former member of the Pine Hills Lions club. He began his banking career at the former First Trust company of Albany which later became Bankers Trust Company of Albany from which he retired as a Vice President. He was a good golfer and was very proud of achieving three holes-in-one. He is a fifty year member of Wolferts Roost Country Club.

Tom will always be remembered for his blue Irish eyes and his wonderful Irish wit, as well as his ability to always make everyone laugh the moment he entered a room. His trademark is his infectious laugh and charismatic smile. He was very proud of his Irish heritage and enjoyed every day. Tom and Joyce Ann had a long and happy marriage, each and every day filled with love and laughter.

Tom was predeceased by his brother, Charles "Bud" McTague, Robert McTague who was in the Army and killed during WW II, and Harold "Mickey" McTague, and his sisters Alice Cassidy, Eve McTague and her son Larry Willis, D.D.S. and Mary Bubonia.

Funeral services Thursday, December 9, 2021 at 9:00 am at the Historic Church of St. Mary on Capitol Hill where his Funeral Mass will be celebrated.

The Rite of Committal will be held at St. Agnes Cemetery, Menands, NY.

“ Every Saturday for the longest time, my dad, Howard and two of his sons played golf with Tom. It was always entertaining with Tom and my dad usually sharing war stories about their time in the South Pacific. After my dad passed, Tom played golf every Saturday with me and my two brothers. They were great memories. He was a special person. Bruce Hoffman
