“ Dear Dottie, and the entire O'Brien family, I am deeply sorry for your loss of Tom; husband, father, grandpa, and uncle. I remember Tom as being very distinguished, gentle, kind, and gracious. It was very obvious that he was proud of his large family and loved following the lives of his children and grandchildren and his brothers' families as well. He will be deeply missed, and his good traits and influence will live on in those he loved.
