

Thomas M. Coyle

March 10, 1922 - June 3, 2011

Albany-Thomas M. Coyle, 89, of Naples Florida and Albany died peacefully in his sleep Friday, June 3, 2011 at St. Peter's Hospital. Born in Albany, he was the son of the late John and Elizabeth Dollard Coyle. He was a WW II, US Army veteran serving his Country honorably in the European Theater while participating in the Battle of the Bulge for Patton's Third Army.

Mr. Coyle was a graduate of Siena College and Christian Brothers Academy. He retired as a Labor Negotiator for the Civil Service Employees Association. Mr. Coyle enjoyed playing golf, and was a former member of the Albany Country Club.

He was the dear husband for 63 years of Juanita Gorman Coyle; beloved father of Richard R. Coyle (Diane) and Thomas M. Coyle (Amy); cherished grandfather of Adrienne, Alexis and Alexandra, Christopher, Andria, Jessica and Julie; great grandfather of Mary; brother of the late John J. Coyle Jr; former father-in-law of Anne Coyle.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend a Memorial Mass Monday, June 6, 2011 at 9:30 am at the Parish of Mater Christi (formerly St. Catherine of Siena Church).

At Tom's request, there will no viewing hours.

Those wishing to remember Mr. Coyle in a special way may send a contribution to the Parish of Mater Christi, 40 Hopewell St. Albany, NY 12208 or the charity of your choice.

“ *Dear Diane, Rick and girls,
My sincerest condolences to you over the loss of your father and grandfather. Diane has shared many touching stories with me of your Dad, he surely was a remarkable man. I hope that you will feel the grace of the prayers being offered by your friends, and in some way they will help you through this difficult time.
Love,
