

Timothy Forte Leonard

August 27, 1942 - June 19, 2014

Albany-Timothy Forte Leonard, 71, passed away peacefully on June 19, 2014 at Albany Medical Center Hospital with his family and life partner by his side. Tim was the devoted son to his parents, Harry Bennett and Marguerite Forte Leonard. Tim was a lifelong resident of Albany. He graduated from Blessed Sacrament School, Vincentian High School, attended Russell Sage College, E.D. and completed numerous banking institution courses. He worked for Home Savings Bank as an assistant Vice President, Childs Hospital as member of the finance team, and Gorman Brothers in the business office. Tim was a veteran of the US Army.

Tim's interests ran the gamut of maintaining a beautifully appointed home, and gardens, family gatherings, bowling, swimming and delighted in throwing an annual Little Christmas party.

Beloved survivors include his life partner Richard J. Kernan, his brother Harry B. (Linda) Leonard of Arizona, sisters Tricia L. (James A.) Sigsworth of Delmar and Marguerite (Ronald E.) Hoyt of Albany, brother Carson J. Leonard (Debbie Greenfield) of Guilderland, also loving nephew Joseph T. (Britta Hogue Fiancee) Mullen, grandnephew Joseph D. Mullen and grandniece Andrea L. Mullen, niece Lori M. (Michael P.) Haggerty, nephew and Godson Chad A. Hoyt, great nephews Jack M. and Max C. Hoyt, all of Albany, cousin Carson Mark Leonard (Heidi), California. Tim was predeceased by his sister,

“ I'm so sorry I just learned of Tim's passing today from a friend and my heart goes out to his family and to Dick. Tim had so much love in him and humor it is light the light has gone out from a lighthouse forever. I will never forget you because you were a good friend and forgive me for not being there. Love Donna Micheli
