“ Tim, Christine and Brittany,

I am so sorry for your loss. I want you to know that my heart goes out to you. You and Timmy are in my thoughts and have been during his battle begun. My parents kept me up to date all along on Timmy's progress and setbacks as he fought the cancer. He was very courageous indeed. Timmy will be missed, but I truly believe that he will be in a better place now that his suffering is over. Stay strong. You are in my thoughts.

“ Dear Tim's family,
I would like to extend my sincerest sympathy on the passing of Tim.. I came to know him at Northwoods where my brother Skip was his neighbor and friend there. For over a year, I would see Tim & his family..often visiting with each other...In that time, it truly touched me to see such love and dedication to Tim from his parents & grandparents- We would often visit together, and be of help to each another by just being there for one another..

When we think of life, it is so short sometimes...but, let us think of it also that it is full of many memories when we meet special people as yourselves--it helps and comforts one to continue on life's difficult journey..

Thank you very very much for your love, support, and help for my brother Skip

“ My hearts are heavy for all of you upstate as I heard the news.....I went to college with Tim's Uncle Kevin and Aunt Lisa and also saw Ratdog and other music with them and Tim's dad - although I did not meet Tim, I am grateful for the many updates from his family over the years and am absolutely amazed by the family support during his difficult battle, always people by his side and keeping the music he loved around him. I know that somewhere he is running free and smiling, enjoying his music and will be connecting forever with his loved ones.....my thoughts go out to all of you and wishing you strength and love to see you through.....##imported-begin##Lisa Keller Silver##imported-end##

“ To Tim's Family:
I am so sorry to read of your loss and wish to express my deepest condolences. May you find a measure of peace from the thought at Psalms 34:18 that God is near to those broken at heart. Certainly, your loss is heartbreaking. It always deeply saddens me when people of so much promise and hope pass away too soon. May "the God of all comfort" give you the peace that surpasses all human thought as you deal with your loss. ~ 2 Corinthians 1:3 & 4.##imported-begin##Jacqueline Montgomery##imported-end##

“ Tim - rest in peace .... continue to be our eyes of the world - remind us to keep stopping strangers just to shake their hand - to remember to hear that same sweet song just passing by, laugh in the sunshine, sing! - you know WE WILL SURVIVE, all the while remembering to keep on dancin' - when the still water ripples with no pebble thrown, we'll know your there buddy - show us the way for no matter what we wish, without love in the game it'll never come true! - We'll hold you close as if you were our own - Let there be songs to fill the air - PLEASE ...For now Tim - Fare you well, Fare you well, we love you more than words can tell, listen to the river sing sweet songs to rock our souls!!!##imported-begin##Joe Cavallo##imported-end##

“ Christine, Timmy, Brittany and all the Finnigan family,

I am so very sorry for your loss. I know that everyone was praying for miracles and I am sorry Timothy and all of you have suffered as much as you have. I know there is not much consolation in this right now, but at least he is now in a much happier place and at peace with God.

My thoughts and prayers are with you all.
