“ Patty, Frank, Traci, & Tyler -- Our thoughts and prayers are with you all. So terribly sorry for your loss. No matter how old we get, we still are too young to lose a parent/grandparent. Comforting Hugs, Mary Beth, Jim & James (Jimmy) Honsinger

“ I miss telling you to be good and not to get into trouble. Then we would laugh. You would put your hand on my face and tell me I was always special and you loved me. I gave you a kiss and told you I love you. I would tuck you in say good night and you always wanted me to stay home from work. We chuckled but you knew I had to work but you really did not like it. I would say now you make sure you behave while o am at work tomorrow I love you to much and I don't want anything to happen to you where you will get hurt. You would put your hand on my face and start rubbing my cheek saying you have always been special to me. I will miss that. The warmth feeling and the love you gave to me and my daughter is unbelievable because the love it never dies, we will carry it around with us forever. Missing you always and forever in our hearts. The younger kids said they miss you and the baby Keith he wanted to go see you yesterday. It will never be the same again. Love you princess.

“ You are my heart and were like a gram to me. You always called me your special one or your angel but you did not realize you were ours. Katelyn and I don't know if we are coming or going right now but the only thing holding us somewhat together is we have the last 2 years of memories and we the 3 musketeers meaning me Kate and Joe walked the walk with you and shared the last 2 years of memories. I called us the 3 musketeers because one came in as the other would go out. There was a time when Joe did not know how he would be able to take care of her when she started to go downhill and he cried because he did not want nothing but the best. That was when Kate and I said and the best she shall get. Together we found a way to make it work and Kate was the angel who was a big help. Thanks Kate. Joe I told you we would get through this together and you will always be family to Kate and I for we are the 3 musketeers. I am sorry for everyones loss but there are no words the pain my daughter and I are feeling we loved her she was our best friend and will always be in our heart's.
