

Victor Nerses

March 9, 1931 - July 7, 2019

Voorheesville-Victor Nerses, 88, passed away suddenly on July 7th, 2019. Son of the late Harry Sr. and Ardemis Kharian, Victor was a first generation American of immigrants who escaped the Armenian genocide. He was born and raised in Providence, Rhode Island.

The family was poor and, after losing his father at age 12, he took an apprenticeship in watch repair to bring in extra money for the family. He attended the University of Rhode Island majoring in physics which his family would point to as the start of his lifelong obsession with the scientific method and developing copious amounts of data on anything and everything. During that time, while working as a lifeguard at a local RI beach, he met his wife of 58 years, Charlotte. She liked to tease that when he was lifeguarding he would ignore her, giving her some excuse about being there to save lives. After his graduation in 1954, the couple moved to Troy, New York where Victor earned his Master's Degree from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. Victor took a job working for the Atomic Energy Commission at Knolls Atomic Power Laboratory from 1967-1977. On more than one occasion he briefed Admiral Hyman Rickover directly and would speak reverently while reminiscing about these interactions.

While living in Delmar, Victor and Charlotte started a family and raised three rambunctious boys. Having lost his father early in life, he worked hard to be there for his three sons. In 1977, he moved the family to Maryland and started the next phase of his career at the Nuclear Regulatory Commission in Bethesda, MD. There he worked his way up to Project Manager for several nuclear power plants such as St. Lucie Unit 2 in Port St. Lucie, Florida. Victor finally retired from the NRC at the age of 75 having earned his 40-year Service Pin.

Right after retiring, Victor and Charlotte moved back to Voorheesville, NY to be closer to family and loved ones. During this phase of his life he was a dedicated, round the clock caretaker for his wife, who had been afflicted with COPD. Victor himself lived a very healthy and active lifestyle that included playing tennis year around and practicing yoga and Pilates. He physically appeared much younger than his 88 years. Victor was a man of strong Christian faith. He was demonstratively loving toward his family-always a steady presence with sage advice. Victor's kind heart, positive attitude, and charisma endeared him to everyone he met. His memory will be cherished and he will be deeply missed.

Victor is predeceased by his wife, Charlotte, his brother, Harry Nerses Jr., and his sisters, Vera Hoffman and Virginia Giso. He is survived by his three sons, Victor E. Nerses (Carol Huber-Nerses), Scott Nerses, and Gregory Nerses (Julie Sanday), and his five grandchildren, Tiffany Campbell, Jacob, Katherine, Kevin, and Alexander Nerses. He is also survived by five great grandchildren, Christian, Edward and Jenevieve Nerses, and Darien and Gabrielle Campbell.

Relatives and friends are invited to visit with Victor's family Thursday, July 11, 2019 4:00 pm to 6:00 pm at McVeigh Funeral Home, 208 N. Allen Street, Albany, NY 12206.

“ Every once in a while a man is born that shows us what it means to be a man . My Father was one of those men . He worked hard all of his life to make sure his family had everything he didn't so that his kids didn't grow up the way he grew up. We all want to provide a better life for our children my father accomplished that and much more . He gave all of himself to this family all of his heart and all of his sole and all of his wisdom . He was never negative and always gave good advice that came from the heart and his love of god . He cared and you knew it . He loved you and there was never a doubt. He was there for you and he had your back. You could count on him always. Everyone who met this man was touched and has been changed for the better . He was a great human being . I was blessed to have him as my father. He was the greatest dad and will be missed beyond words . His family will always cherish his memory. The world is a lesser place because of his absence but heaven is improved by his presence .
Love you Dad give mom a kiss for me.
