

Vincent Cesare

March 16, 1968 - May 30, 2023

Albany – Vincent Robert Cesare, 55, was called home to his wife Lisa, brother Michael, and father Lawrence on Tuesday, May 30, 2023, at home. Born in Albany, he was the son of Violet Kot Cesare Borowski and the late Lawrence J. Cesare.

A lifelong Albany native, Vinny made his career as a skilled plumber. He was a Buffalo Bills fan, motorcycle enthusiast, and trivia buff, who loved his sisters' cookies and family gatherings. He was always quick to help others. His smile, bathroom humor, and good-natured attitude towards life will be missed by all who knew him. He was in his "happy place" when camping in the Adirondacks.

Vinny is survived by his daughters Samantha and Ashley Cesare; his sister Jackie Cesare Farrell and brother Larry Cesare; his beloved 5 grandchildren; and his nieces, nephews, cousins, and 2 great nieces.

Relatives and friends are invited to visit with Vin's family on Monday, June 5, 2023, from 10:00 am to 1:00 pm in the Dreis Funeral Home, 208 North Allen Street, Albany, NY 12206.

A Funeral Service honoring his life will immediately follow at 1:00 pm. Please only enter the funeral home from the rear parking lot entrance.

In lieu of flowers those wishing to remember Vinny in a special way may send contributions to any charity that supports mental health awareness.

“ To a friend that I got to know as a loving father son brother. You couldn't ask for a more sincere man who told you what was on his mind. He was a great partner and plumber and did his best at every job we worked on. He loved his daughters and his grand kids. I spent time with his family a few times and he was wonderful with his mom I don't think she could've asked for a more caring son. I'm going to miss you pal your time was up way to soon Love and peace as he would say to me all the time
