

William "Bill" J. Fox

February 22, 1928 - June 22, 2023

Albany, NY-William J Fox Albany- Bill Fox 95 of Albany passed peacefully into eternal life, at his home with his family by his side.

Bill was the son of Howard and Martha Fox Sr.. Bill attended St. Patricks, St Anne's and Albany High School. He was part of the Labors Union and proudly worked as a supervisor for The Northeastern Association of the Blind for 40 years. Bill was always a hard working and dedicated man. He had a passionate love for music, dancing and life. A man whose eyesight was stolen from him young, but never once complained of it, yet with that, never lacked the vision for the path ahead of him.

"We THANK you for that dad." Bill preceded his "lovely" & cherished wife Elsa and leaves at this time his children, Thomas Fox, Kathleen Fox, James and Stefania Fox, Charles and Carol Bohl. A legacy of 9 amazing grandchildren & spouses. Savannah & Dean Emily, Gabrielle & Taylor James & Sabrina, Evelyn & Alex, Charlie & Sara, Sarah, Elsa & Paul and Ben. His "precious" Great grandchildren, Peyton, Hannah, Greyson, Madison, Hazel, Asher and Reagan.

A beautiful reflection of true friendship and devotion was Bill's best friend, brother & "partner in crime" Howard.

Thank you also Tom (TaTa) for all the years putting up with the two legends.
xoxo

A very special thank you to Charlie and Stefania "your love was genuine!"

RIP our dear daddy, we love you & we will see you soon!

“ So sorry for the loss of your dad. My sincere condolences to his family. I have so many wonderful memories of Bill. I 1st. knew Bill and Elsa who were neighbors many years ago. Then later my friend and I and my son rented an apartment from Bill and Elsa. I remember Bill as being full of life, funny and always able to make us laugh. We all became good friends and I will miss him although those wonderful memories will keep him close. Until we meet again Bill.
