Anne, I am deeply sorry for your loss. Cry tears of sadness and emptiness for you, and let your heart swell with joy, knowing that your Dad is a peace. He has escaped His personal prison. I truly believe that they (People with Alzheimer's/Dementia) know we are there with them even though they cannot tells us. Look into their eyes and you can see the joy deep inside that person. You are a great daughter, and trust me, your Dad appreciates all you did for Him. Now you can find Him surrounding you, and be able to smile with the thought of something you see, smell or say as you remember Him. You and He traveled a terrible road together, that has come to an end in Peaceful Serenity. A.B.W.Y. Love you.

PS

“ To Anne and family, may you have comfort in knowing that your loved one is at peace and no longer suffering . The good Lord will also grant you the strength to help you through this most difficult phase in your lives. And especially to Anne who has been there for her dad every day and night to help comfort him. It is her turn to be at peace. Thank you Anne for giving me the support that I need.
