

William Albert Hartigan

July 18, 1930 - December 16, 2016

NYC- William Albert Hartigan entered Eternal Life on December 16, 2016 at Cornell Presbyterian Hospital, NYC. Born July 18, 1930 in Albany, New York, he was the eldest child of John A. and Harriet (Barnes) Hartigan.

A resident of Manhattan for over fifty years, Bill, as everyone called him, graduated from CBA in 1948, Manhattan College and earned his Master's Degree in Math and Economics at Carnegie Tech. Bill was a long time employee employed by IBM as Corporate Financial Analyst.

Bill actively volunteered at St. Patrick's Cathedral and many church organizations. His interests included the New York Library, Museums, a sport enthusiast, and taking long daily walks. He was known for many academic achievements and for his faith, kind disposition, honesty, and generosity to charities.

Bill is survived by his brother John (Jean) Hartigan and sister – in – law Kathie (Poli) Hartigan; also by nieces and nephews. In addition to his parents, he is predeceased by his sister Joan (Jerry) Dombrowski, and brother Francis Hartigan.

Special thanks to Patty Gylfe, for her many kindnesses to him.

A Memorial Mass, followed by the Rite of Interment at Calvary Cemetery, Glenmont, New York will be held privately at the convenience of the family at a later date.
