“ I was worked as a secretary, years ago, for a terrific group of people who formed the Governor's Anti-Drug Abuse council. Bill was one of the men I worked for. His smile, his relaxed way, his laugh was always so welcome in that busy office. He often talked about his wife and daughters, and I used to think about his wife, Gloria, on my way to my brothers in Portchester - Gloria, you don't know this, but everyone in the office knew that you used to walk across that big bridge in Newburgh for exercise!

It's hard to believe that time has gone so fast, and some of the good people who cross our paths are already leaving. May God bless you and guide Bill home.
