

William J. Delehanty

August 27, 1944 - August 20, 2010

Glenmont-William J. Delehanty, 65, died Friday, August 20, 2010. Born in Albany, he was the son of the late James Benedict and Ann Regan Delehanty. He was a US Navy Vietnam War veteran. Bill was an avid golfer, hunter, fisherman and Boston Red Sox fan. He was employed by Conrail for more than thirty years.

He was the husband of Susan Delehanty; father of Kevin S. Delehanty, Patrick R. Delehanty; stepfather of Jennifer Martell (Christopher), Melissa Mahar (Sean), Stephanie Thomas and Amanda Thomas; grandfather of Sean Mahar, Ainsley Martell, and Makensie Delehanty; brother of the late James B. Delehanty (Marylou); uncle of Cheryl Delehanty, Karen Rosser, James Delehanty III, Regan and Claire Rosser.

A Memorial Mass will be celebrated at 11:00 am Saturday, August 28, 2010 at St. Thomas the Apostle Church, Delmar, NY. Relatives and friends are invited to attend.

Those wishing to remember William J. Delehanty in a special way may send a contribution to the Fisher House Foundation, or the charity of your choice.

“ *Dear Uncle Billy,
As the days have passed by, I find myself thinking of you and our memories so fondly and like it was yesterday. I miss you dearly already and hold you so close to my heart. Some of my favorite things about you were your laughter, that you taught me how to drive because no one else wanted to (I wonder why..ha ha!), your trunk full of presents for Cheryl, Jimmy and I at Christmas and us screaming "Uncle Billy's here, Uncle Billy's here"!! But most of all showing us about love and a bond between siblings and family. You and daddy were very close and Cheryl and Jimmy and I are too and even more so now, Kevin and Patrick. We will all miss you and continue to hold you close in our hearts and cherish our memories and we will smile when we think of those memories. Thank you for always being there for me and for loving Regan and Claire so much. They thought the world of you. Be peaceful and know we love you forever.*

“ Pat, Kevin, Missy and Family,

I will never forget going to your Dad's house after Pat's wedding, and talking baseball with him. It was easy until I said how much of a Yankee fan I was!! I can say, we didn't agree much after that, but we both did laugh alot!

I am so sorry for everything that you are going through right now. I wish there was a way to make this all easier..... Tim and I are here if you need anything at all!

“ To Karen, Cheryl and Jimmy --

I was deeply saddened to learn of the loss of Uncle Billy. Like your Dad, he always made me feel like one of the family. Karen, our friendship spans over 30 years and I remember your family gatherings and the laughter that Uncle Billy would always bring to the party! He recently heard me perform at a local restaurant, and having him tell me "you're pretty good kid", meant the world to me. I am blessed to have known him and to have spent time in his presence that I will never forget. My prayers are with you all.###imported-begin##Annette Harris###imported-end##

“ I am deeply saddened at the passing of Bill. I remember Billy as a very young boy who would tag along with Jim and me as one of the gang. In recent years I would very much look forward to family weddings where Billy and I would talk about our mutual love of the Red Sox and Notre Dame.
He would talk about Sue and his children and his great love for all of them.
Michele and I offer our deepest sympathy to Sue, his children and grandchildren. We will miss him greatly.

“ No greater compliment can be paid a person than to be called a Friend.

True Friends are far too few.

I have lost not only a True Friend but a Special One and they are even more rare.
