“ Pattie, Tracy and Martin - so sorry over the passing of your Dad - he was always smiling when we were around him. Leo, Betty. Bill and June were best friends throughout the years. Betty and June were like sisters and Betty only had her Dad, a few aunts and cousins in the area. They got married in September, 1948 and I was always with them when I was twelve and later as the baby-sitter. Betty was like my own sister. June was always sweet to be around. Your memories of the days gone by will keep you together. My prayers go with you.##imported-begin##Jean Kaczmarek##imported-end##
